Dear Fan of Fantastic Cinema,

Welcome to the December 2006 edition of the European Fantastic Film Festivals Federation Newsletter. During November four festivals came to an end, one affiliated member, and three adherent members.

A new festival has joined the ranks of the federation, as an adherent member. NatFilm Festival presides in Copenhagen, Denmark and is the first Danish film festival to join the federation.

As Christmas is closing in, all federation festivals take a short break during December and January and will re-surface in February with Fantasporto and the 6th Méliès d'Argent

Merry Christmas Happy New Year from Méliès.org!

Dates: March 23 – April 1 2007

NatFilm Festival joins the European Fantastic Film Festival Federation as an adherent member from November 1.

NatFilm Festival, founded 1990, is the biggest international film event in Denmark. We are primarily a non-competitive audience festival, which aims to present new cinematic visions of all sorts to a Danish audience.

The European Fantastic Film has a natural place in our program, which also includes highlights of New Asian Cinema and New Latin American Cinema amongst many others. Fantastic titles from the latest editions includes: 'MirrorMask', 'The Descent', 'The Ordeal', 'Trouble', 'V for Vendetta', 'An American Haunting', 'Night of the Living Dorks', 'Bangkok Loco', 'Innocence (Ghost in the Shell 2)', 'Offscreen', 'Kung Fu Hustle', 'Appleseed', 'Azumi' and the world premiere of the 2006 winner of the MÉLIÉS D'OR, 'Adam's Apples'.

Méliès.org welcomes NatFilm Festival to the Federation.
