

The 7th edition of scienceplusfiction, Trieste International Science Fiction Festival, will take place in from 21st to 26th November 2006 in Trieste, Italy.

It is now possible to enter the two competitions featured in our festival:

- the International Competition for Best Science-Fiction Feature Film;
- the European Selection of Fantastic Short-Films, aimed at the nomination for "Méliès d'Or for the Best Fantastic Short Film" of the European Fantastic Film Festivals Federation (www.melies.org).

Anyone who is interested in submitting a film must fill in the entry form and send it, together with all the material required, to the address quoted below. Deadline for submission is 15th October 2006.

Entry form and regulations of the competitions are available for download on the website of our festival: www.scienceplusfiction.org.

The competition for full feature films is open to works belonging to the sci-fi and fantasy genres of any nationality, with a minimum length of 60 minutes. The competition for short films is only open to European productions, with a maximum length of 20 minutes, belonging to the fantastic genre, in its broadest sense.

Moreover, scienceplusfiction will host a large selection of international previews of science fiction, fantasy and horror movies.

More information are available at www.scienceplusfiction.org.
